- 35 subject to two(2) primary obligations: a Duty of Care and a Duty of Loyalty. The
- 36 Duties of Care and Loyalty are common terms for the standards which guide all
- 37 actions a director takes.

38
39 A. THE DUTY OF CARE

40 The Duty of Care calls upon a director to participate in decisions of the board and be

41 Informed as to data relevant to such decisions.

- 42
- 43 1.) The Duty of Care requires that a director be informed and exercise
- 44 independent judgement.
 - 45 a. Regular attendance at meetings of the board of directors is a basic
 - 46 element of prudent performance as a director.
 - 47 b. Each director, no matter how selected, shares in all the responsibilities

1 and powers of the directors. Each director should exercise her or his
2 independent judgement on all corporate decisions.
3 c. To function effectively a director needs to be informed.

4
5 2.) In the ordinary course of business, a director may act in reliance on 6 information and reports received from regular sources whom the director
7 reasonably regards as trustworthy.

8
9 3.) The board of directors may delegate the operation of portions of the 10 day to day business of the association. In delegating that function to others,
11 it must set policies and oversee the corporate agents. The individual director
12 may not delegate his or her responsibility as a director.

13 B. THE DUTY OF LOYALTY

14 The duty of loyalty requires directors to exercise their powers in the interest of the 15 Association not in their own interest or the interest of another entity or person.

18 1.) Directors of nonprofit corporations may have interest in conflict with 19 Those of the corporation. The Duty of Loyalty requires that a director be 20 conscious of the potential for such conflicts and act with candor and care
21 in dealing with such situations.

23 2.) When a director has an interest in a transaction being considered by the 24 board of directors, the director should disclose the conflict before the 25 board of directors takes action on the matter.

26 3.) Before a director engages in a transaction which he or she reasonably 27 should know may be of interest to the corporation, the director should 28 disclose the transaction to the board of directors in sufficient detail and 29 adequate time to enable the board to act or decline to act with regard to 30 such transaction.
